

Daniel's Day

A children's story book written by Mary Gordon that supports the Roots of Empathy (ROE) organization.

The introduction to this book gives parents unique insights into the emotional life of a five year old child and the importance of the ebb and flow of relationships in families. Melanie Gordon's inimitable illustrations invite readers to connect with the vulnerability, heartbreak, frustration, joyfulness, and tenderness of the protagonist. A tin mirror at the back of the book invites reflection on feelings from both the adult and child reader in a playful way.

Through following Daniel in the ups and downs of a day in his five-year-old life, we see how he becomes an empathic child. Daniel makes sense of, and recovers from, disappointment and hurt feelings because those close to him have shown empathy towards him.

All proceeds from the sale of Daniel's Day are reinvested into the ROE organization to support its Roots of Empathy and Seeds of Empathy programs. ROE is a national charity dedicated to building caring, peaceful and civil societies through the development of empathy in children and adults.
